

A Poem by Russell Edson

Antimatter

On the other side of a mirror there's an inverse world, where the insane go sane; where bones climb out of the earth and recede to the first slime of love.

And in the evening the sun is just rising.

Lovers cry because they are a day younger, and soon childhood robs them of their pleasure.

In such a world there is much sadness which, of course, is joy.

Very cool!

Very surreal!

Actually, an awesome idea! Adding a new Category for Paranormal Poetry...
